Home Instead Senior Care

Seniors 55 + are invited to the Earl Heck Community Center to gather information from local organizations and business who work with senior adults. There will be representatives with door prizes or games at the information tables. There will be a wide variety of free information that you will find useful now and in the future. All seniors are welcome. This is the place to come to get all your questions answered and learn more about your safety and well-being.
